

Johnson Manufacturing Announces New Staff and Product Line

Princeton, IA – Johnson Manufacturing Company announces a new addition to its Customer Service Team along with the realignment of its current team members. Jared Popplewell will be joining the team as a sales representative after completing his Bachelor's Degree in Marketing at the University of Iowa. The Customer Service team members include:

- Aaron Morrow, V.P. Sales and Marketing (aaron.morrow@johnsonmfg.com)
- Pat O'Connor, V.P. SA Day Products (pat.oconnor@johnsonmfg.com)
- Dan Thompson, Export Sales Manager (dan.thompson@johnsonmfg.com)
- Bernie Brown, Sales Engineer (bernie.brown@johnsonmfg.com)
- Jared Popplewell, Sales Representative (jared.popplewell@johnsonmfg.com)

The addition of a new team member comes paired with a new addition to the Johnson product line. In March 2017, Johnson acquired the Deoxaluminite Weld-Thru Primer product line from D.C. Sales & Engineering Inc.
